

From: rob_smith@dell.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/15/02 10:44am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Microsoft has always strived to make my job as a programmer easier throughout my career. This company doesn't deserve the treatment it is getting from the government and its jealous competitors. The settlement that has been reached should be accepted and Microsoft should be left alone to continue innovating and making computers users lives easier. Where would we be today without Microsoft's contributions? Most likely still in the computer dark ages.